BIG CROWD ENJOYS DANCE STAGED BY ELKS

The Vulcan Lodge, B.P.O.E., No. 121, staged a very successful dance last Friday evening, March 20th. The enjoyment of the occasion was greatly augmented by the raffle of a beautiful bridge table, the work of "Sailor" LaGrande; S. W. Colwell, Kirkcaldy holding the lucky ticket, No. 357.

Joe Tomte and his Vulcan orchestra, supplied the music in their usual efficient manner.

Elks and visitors from the entire district, as well as many from outlying communities were present and all voted the affair as the best of the season.

Mrs. Sharman had charge of the midnight refreshments and served a dainty lunch.

The joint meeting of the U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. held at the school was well attended. Douglass were the speakers for the affirmative; Mrs. Clifford Love and Mr. L. Oldfield for the negative, the latter being judged the winners. Community singing, led by Mr. N. Also it was unanimously agreed upon, to volunteer a sewing bee in June in aid of the Municipal Hospital. It was decided to send a donation to the Junior Conference Fund also to purchase a useful gift for a lady who recently lost her home through fire. The secretary, Mrs. H. Douglass, presented the programme for the rest of the year, recently compiled by the directors, the main features being papers by members on "beatification of home and surroundings"; horticulture highlights of the season; distinctive characteristics of M.P.'s; the work of Mrs. O. C. Edwards; Co-operative Marketing; health; pioneer days in our district; debates on heredity or environment; teen age; a scare, etc.; demonstrations on first aid; home making; cording wool, etc. The next meeting to be at Mrs. Hubbard's on April 8th and the next whist drive at Mrs. Noble's on March 31st. The open season for gophers commenced with a bang (or several bangs) on Monday, and some local sportsmen took the opportunity to try their skill in hunting big game. Messrs. L. H. Stack, W. G. Peterson and Alex Bowie went in quest of the elusive rodent and improved the 1931 wheat crop by the slaughter of several of these pests. "L.H." was not content to kill 'em in singles but with unerring aim and steady nerve picked 'em off two a time.

Reading the last week's issue of "The Peace River Record" we discovered the following item of interest of Vulcan readers, who like to hear of former citizens: "The final games of the mixed bonspiel were played the first of this week. In the semifinals for the two consolation prizes, P. Gauvreau's rink won from C. Young's rink and A.J.E. Gibson's rink won from Curly Thompson's rink. In the finals, A.J.E. Gibson was the winner against Gauvreau." Many people will remember Mr. Gibson's activity in curling at this point and of his splendid work with the cadets.

The above standing is comparative for subscriptions turned in up to Tuesday night. Workers not making regular cash reports will be dropped from the list.

The Advocate's circulation drive is now under way, with new workers getting into the swing and older ones trying to keep the pace set. There is plenty of room for others to enter and WIN, for if one will scan to-days line-up, it is noticeable that those who were considered "new workers" last week are now up with most of the earlier entries, and ahead of many of them.

It must be remembered that the credits keep dropping all the time and that more credits are given until Saturday, April 4th than at any time later in the campaign. There are only 8 more days of the First Period and the highest credits of the campaign. It is work during that time that counts. Here is how the credits count up to Saturday, April 4th:

5 years	$10.00	100,000
4 years	$ 8.00	60,000
3 years	$ 6.00	30,000
2 years	$ 4.00	10,000
1 year	$ 2.00	2,000

and here's how they count afterwards:

5 years	$10.00	80,000
4 years	$ 8.00	40,000
3 years	$ 6.00	20,000
2 years	$ 4.00	7,000
1 year	$ 2.00	1,500

Double the above schedule is given on NEW subscriptions.

Time is Flying Fast
Considerable work should be done before April 4th, the end of the big credits and only 8 days away. In fact, smart workers will secure many "clubs" before then. "A club a day," how does that sound? Not so much to win that big sedan worth $1012, is it? With your friends stand behind you, and have you the pep and will-power to carry on against competition and do something BIG in order to receive something BIG in return? Now for the test. Now is the time to grit your teeth and fight. Anyone can win when things are going "their way"—but everyone is pitted against competition now—and stiff competition too.

A Business Proposition
This newspaper is offering real awards and has the right to expect good returns for those prizes. The prize list as offered should attract the attention of the best hustlers in the communities and REAL HONEST TO-GOODNESS hustlers are going to make some big money in the next few weeks for their efforts. It must be remembered that this is not a charitable undertaking on the part of the Advocate but a business proposition of the highest type.

Remember, that the leaders of today do not necessarily mean the final winners, for over four weeks remain to bridge the gap between the leaders and those further down the line.

How to Help a Friend
Many people throughout the territory have asked how they might go about it to help some candidate in the race. As this is a strictly business proposition, there is but one way to help and that is to help get subscriptions. Every subscription carries with it so many credits and credits are what win the big awards. Give your own subscription and then help sell some of your neighbors. Look over the list of workers and you will find one from your territory. You can leave your subscription here at the Advocate office and it will be given to the one you want to see win.

Credits Drop Soon
Now is the time to do most while the credits are big. After a week from Saturday night the credits take a big drop. Our best advice to those who wish to win and to friends of candidates is to rush every available subscription to the campaign department now while the big credits are in effect. Not to do so simply means that you are throwing away golden opportunities—opportunities that may bring you one of the fine prizes. Everyone loves a worker and a worker loves encouragement.

Get in the race with a shout and may the best candidate win!

How to Get a Million Credits
A "club" in the Advocate circulation campaign is any combination of subscriptions turned in by a worker that totals $20.00 and for which said worker receives 50,000 EXTRA credits. These "club" credits are given workers throughout the campaign.

How Credits Pile Up
As an example of how fast credit will pile up: If turned in by Saturday April 4th a NEW 5-year subscription earns 200,000 credits, therefore five such subscriptions, including the $20 "clubs" would make a grand total of 1,110,000 credits. Or, eight 5-year renewal subscriptions would total an even million credits. Surely energetic workers who have either five or eight friends who would be willing to help them to the extent of a 5-year subscription.

For those who are not able to give a 5-year subscription, you can help in another way. A 3-year new subscription earns 60,000 credits and fifteen such subscriptions, including the $20 "clubs" total 1,110,000 credits. Or twenty-four 3-year renewal subscriptions would total 1,070,000.

Those workers who wish to make a place for themselves in this campaign can do so by setting a goal of "selling a club a day." If you will sell a "club" a day, you surely will be among the winners of the major awards at the end of the campaign. It can be done.

LOCAL YOUNG FOLKS IN HIGH RIVER DEBATE

The final event in the series of debates which have been conducted by Young People's Societies throughout High River Presbytery, was held in High River on Thursday evening. The final contestants were Okotoks and Vulcan and the subject for debate was: "Resolved that in the activities of the League of Nations lies the solution of world peace."

Okotoks represented by Mr. Barnes and Mr. Cady spoke for the affirmative while Miss McCartney and Harry Pratten of Vulcan supported the negative.

Mr. Vernon Wight presided, and those present included many of the young people from Vulcan, Okotoks and this district who have been debating during the winter.

Excellent preparation and delivery characterized both teams and the judges who were Rev. Findlay of Parkland, Mrs. Netze and Earl Goodwin, had a difficult task. The award however, was made to the clever Okotoks debaters and the winning of this final event, entitles them to the trophy for the Presbytery. Presentation of this was made to Mr. Barnes and Mr. Cady by Rev. Findlay, later in the evening.

While the judges were summing up the "evidence," entertainment was given by Miss Margaret Malmberg with a piano solo, Miss Juneau Bond an Irish dance; while Royce Clark and Jack Anderson of Vulcan gave an "Ikey and Izzy" comedy skit.

Amongst the arguments presented by affirmative a very strong point was made of what has already been accomplished by the League of Nations in maintaining peace. Since its establishment, twenty-three problems of arbitration have been dealt with, all of a provocative nature, and ten at least of which, were quite as serious as those which brought about the world war. This argument was amplified considerably, with a number of specific cases given of matters between nations which had been amicably settled. An English statesman was quoted as saying that if the League of Nations, had existed in 1914, there would have been no war.

One factor promoting a greater world understanding, is the fact that the employees and workers in the League of Nations are drawn from every nation. This World Court has already done much for the protection of small countries, and has built up nations depleted and exhausted by the war. It has proved efficient constructively and nations have confidence in its judgment.

The negative side however, argued that arbitration courts were effective only up to a point, and that if the impulse to war really existed in a country, arbitration would be powerless and the League of Nations itself would be only another "scrap of paper."

The few representatives of each country who are gathered at Geneva, are not necessarily the voice of the nation they represent.

The negative side also emphasized strongly the way in which the nations are evading the standing armies stipulated by the League of Nations. They may be allowed an army of only 100,000 men and at the same time may have every man in the country a trained soldier.

The only way toward peace was for the individuals of the world to think, believe and work for peace.

The High River Young People's Society entertained the visitors at supper after the program.

"Tommy, can you tell me one of the uses of cowhide?" "Er, yessir. It keeps the cow together."

WHY THE HARDSHIPS?

Although this part of the country is not in close touch with the work of the immigration officials at the border cities between Canada and United States, judging from what one reads there are hardships working on families which are outrage to humanity.

Whether the immigration departments are putting their whole minds to separating families and making people unhappy, has not yet been proved, but they seem to be complicating matters unnecessarily.

One reads about the child of a Canadian mother, born in the States who is not allowed to come into this country when the mother is sent back by the United States immigration authorities. The child has to be placed in a children's home in the States.
There are other instances of fathers held on the American side, and not permitted to join their children who are waiting in Canada.

This situation in the border towns, due to the stiff enforcement of new immigration rules have wreaked expense and great suffering on children and parents, decent people who might well be welcomed either in United States or Canada as good citizens. The worst feature is the entirely unnecessary separation of parents and children.

Surely common sense and intelligence have some small place in the work of the immigration departments.
If part of the effort which is going into making small children unhappy, would go into the detection and detention of the criminals and racketeers who wangle their way back and forth between the countries, here would be more general respect for the laws and their enforcement.

HOCKEY ON FARMS

One happy development of this winter season, which may be attributable in part to the open weather, is the general hockey action throughout the countryside. It enjoyed a popularity almost equal to the softball interest of last summer. Every little district had its own hockey team and the puck was shooting back and forth on every little lake or slough.

The lack of sport interest for the young people which has long been charged as a drawback in rural life, seems to be disappearing along with other drawbacks of a more isolated era. It now takes only a few minutes to reach some community centre, where the neighborhood can engage in pleasures usually associated with town or city life.

The numerous softball clubs which flourished through the summer all over the country, may have given the necessary impetus toward continuing in winter sport. At any rate good players are developing on the farms.
Possibly next year may see a continuation of the interest in the form of district leagues.

Although this is not a matter of deep and serious portent, yet it argues a healthy love of sport and action. Any game in which numbers of young people can engage provides a normal outlet, stirs up competitive interest and is generally more satisfying than merely watching others compete. It adds its little quota toward making the young people more interested in their own community and well deserves encouragement.

TRAIN FOR LIFE

A searching and critical light is being turned on the present system of secondary education and a great doubt is growing as to whether or not it actually is a preparation for life.

World conditions are in a period of bewildering change, where mental and technical equipment which is good today, may not be practically useful tomorrow. The business of education would then be not to stock up a child with an accumulation of standard reactions, but to give him the power to deal with new situations, to readapt himself to a rapidly changing world.

Dr. Watson, national educational authority of Detroit suggests that children should be developed along seven main lines of common life experience. 1. Health, 2. personal relations, 3. vocations, 4. money and goods, 5. social order, 6. recreations, 7. interpretations of the universe.

This would not mean a discarding of the subject matter at present taught in the schools, so much as a general re-organization of this matter in order that it places more emphasis on actual living. Dr. Watson says that even though something is important at the age of 40, it does not mean that it must be learned.
But what must be learned at 14, is how to keep on learning so that at 40 he will be able to adjust himself to the important new things of that age.

Dr. Scott, superintendent of the Calgary schools voices something the same idea when he says, "It is important that parents and children should regard education as a process of individual development continuing through life, rather than the mechanical process of obtaining credit for the required number of units at school by external pressure brought to bear by teachers."

It was in criticism of the prevailing "unit" system with its rigid demands and its discouragement of individual initiative, that Dr. Scott spoke. Students not especially interested in purely academic work, found themselves befogged in the units, and might far more profitably and en-joyably be occupied in technical lines.

BASIC INDUSTRIES

It would almost appear that if you wish to succeed financially in Canada, the way to do it is to start a secondary industry, get all the protection you can and then take it out of the producers of the raw materials and the consumers.

Here in Alberta agriculture is at a low ebb. It cannot make money at the present prices for wheat and most of the other commodities produced. Coal mining is in a bad way for lack of market, though we have more than 15 per cent. of the world's coal reserves underlying our rich land. And now our oil industry, which is growing, and which leads all Canada in the production of that very necessary commodity, is crying for help.

People of Alberta are beginning to wonder. It appears that any bit of a secondary industry in the East can get all the Government help it asks for just for the asking. Ottawa jumps at the chance to put up a high tariff to aid it. But in the case of the broad primary industries, upon which the whole structure of our prosperity must be built, there is a very great reluctance to do anything worth while.

The oil industry has been the latest to feel the blow. Tariffs were adjusted to help the refineries, but the producers of the crude oil, the raw materials which the refineries use, are being ground down by one cut after another in the price paid them.

A LIGHT TOUCH

An article in a current women's magazine sounded a note of praise for "the light touch." While the direct application was in connection with physical gestures, with walking, fencing, moving, yet the phrase itself was a happy one. "The light touch" which can smooth social contacts and simplify the many different ways of doing things and saying things! There are so many who are heavy footed and fumbling in accomplishing their ends, and so few who possess the deftness and skill of the light touch.

There are always two ways of doing everything, two ways of getting what you want, two ways of thinking two ways of living—pounding away it a thing with sledge hammer, or touching it with the lightness that only skill can give. The knowing how.
Haven't you seen people going after what they want—throwing things about, climbing over people, clubbing their way to the appointed spot? And then another person comes in, with a light touch here or there, a light or understanding word in just the right place, walks straight to what she wants and takes it without leaving any signs but a pleasant general ripple? And you may depend, the latter person has complete control of body, mind and nerves. She is sure of herself, and is skilled."

In a world in which human contacts are becoming increasingly more complex and demanding, the necessity for the "light touch" is correspondingly great. Unhappy is the individual who feels he must batter and bludgeon his way to gain his ends, who travels rough-shod over every obstacle and prides himself on speaking his mind and dealing out unpleasantness as he goes. He has the heavy touch which is a blight on all those with whom he comes in contact.

How much more pleasing and in the language of the day, how much more "efficient" is he who can guide situations and people without creating antagonism, who is an expert in the social contacts and whose skilled touch is light but sure.

Many a man nowadays does not keep his nose to the grindstone, for the very good reason that he lacks the grindstone.

SIGNS OF SLUMP HITS MOTOR CARS

Increase in the Eastern Provinces, Decrease in the Western Provinces

An evidence of the way depressed times have hit Canada is shown in the figures on the motor car industry.
These show that the Maritimes have flourished in Canada in 1930, rather than more than any other part.
Prince Edward Island in 1930 shows an increase in cars of 21.81 per cent;
New Brunswick 9.74 per cent; Nova Scotia, 7.55; Quebec 5.58, and Ontario, 4.16 per cent.

Western provinces however, show much sadder conditions. British Columbia has an increase of 3.52 per cent; Alberta 2.45 per cent; Manitoba, 2.09 per cent, and Saskatchewan shows 913 fewer cars in 1930 than in 1929.

There was an increase of cars in Canada in 1930 of 45,703 more than in 1929. And in 1930, registrations exceeded 1,200,000 altogether.

Textile manufacturers in the east are being urged to use more Canadian raw wool, thus relieving low raw wool market and reducing on imports.

More than 100,000 people in Britain last year received injuries in bath rooms. This is the most dangerous room in the house.

SHUTTING IN OIL MEANS SMALL LOSS

Many Oil Operators Consider Suggestion of Premier Brownlee Re-conservation, Very Fair

While opinions vary, many leading oil operators are of the opinion that imposition of a 40 per cent "shut-in" conservation measure in Turner Valley would not make a very material difference in barrelage. Furthermore, the assurance of prolonged life is stressed as the best safeguard to investor's money.

"It is not the naphtha production that the government would set out to reduce," said one operator, on his return from the Edmonton conference of government and company representatives. In order to benefit, the purchaser must show that the carload consisted of at least 12 head of female cattle, not under eight months and not over five years of age.

Only cattle that have been declared by a Dominion veterinarian to be free from tuberculosis or other disease may be included in a shipment and the animals must be shown to be of merit from a producing standpoint. The new policy goes into effect immediately.

VARIED SOILS IN VARIED ALBERTA

A Detailed Soil Survey Shows Adaptability of Different Parts of Province

Dr. Wyatt of the soils department, Alberta University, has surveyed Alberta soil and finds it greatly differing in value, with some areas distinctly grain growing, others fit for pasturage and so on.

A line drawn from Provost through Hanna, Bassano and Coutts, with Saskatchewan as east boundary encloses a brown soil section, an area of about twelve million acres. This "dry plains soil" is especially adapted to wheat growing and grazing. It produces a short but nutritive grass and if moisture is sufficient good quality.

Encircling this area on the north and west, is another belt of dark brown soil. This second area is about fifty miles wide. It produces a little better pasture, and a little more security of good wheat crop. It includes about twelve million acres.

The third great division is the parklands belt. This is a sort of triangle with a northern boundary extending from Vermilion to Edmonton, and extending south in triangular fashion to Calgary. The soil here is black with a clay subsoil. This is the natural mixed farming section producing surer fodder crops than other parts.

There are great areas of "parklands" also round Grande Prairie, Peace River, High Prairie, etc.

The remainder of the province which is about two-thirds the entire area, belongs to the wooded soil belt which is generally less productive than parklands. This wooded soil requiring more of clover and such growths than others. Wooded soils are lacking at first in nitrogen and minerals, but benefit greatly under leguminous crops.

BEAUTIFYING BY CATALOGUE

The following unusual order was received by B.C. seedman:

"Dear Sir—As I have a 10-foot garden that is not used for anything at present but growing stones, please send me one dozen strawberry seeds; one bee, with hive, complete; a half-dozen wall flowers, with a half-dozen pieces of wall to match; three plum seeds—plum cake variety—one grape seed suitable for wine-making; one concrete path, winding, and three square yards of grass. The grass should be green not the withered brown kind I see in so many gardens."

CAUSE OF UNREST

The other day we read how Mr. Rudy Vallee ("the Lord's gift to woman" whose crooning reminds us of nothing so much as the wailing of a back yard fence, gets $300,000 a year to croon. That was bad enough; but now comes word that Master Jackie Coogan has made a contract with Paramount Studios under which $7,500 will go into his pay envelope weekly. Just $390,000 a year.

'Tis a mad world, surely. Here we have a youngster of no education and with no outstanding valuable talent getting five times the salary of the President of the United States, twelve times the salary of the Prime Minister of England, and twenty times the salary of the Prime Minister of Canada. Getting more in one week than many first-class educators who have spent half a lifetime acquiring knowledge get in fifty-two weeks.

People ask why so many of the younger generation are not interested in serious things, scorn public service, are oblivious to the professions and the sciences. Well, there's Jackie Coogan. If movie stars can soar to such golden heights, if prize fighters can pull down a cool million in a year, if a professional athlete can earn more than a political economist, then who wants to be a lawyer or a doctor or artist or a scientist? —Ottawa Journal.

NEW POLICY IN AGRICULTURE

No member of the Ottawa Ministry appears to have brought himself so closely into touch with the actual problems of the Western people, as has the Minister of Agriculture. He has already shown himself solicitous, eager for information and suggestions from all sources and quite fearless.

With the data which he has been assembling in his interviews and visits through the West, he has inaugurated a definite agricultural policy, subject to alterations and needs which may rise. Amongst the causes which he will promote as actively as may be, will be a National Marketing Board; lower costs of production by increase yield; sowing of land to crops best suited to it; suitable fertilizers at moderate cost; survey of seed grains, seed vegetables and fodder crops; creation of bull clubs; immediate improvement of quality of swine, with government assistance; closer survey of poultry flock; securing of best balanced rations available to each area; co-operation with provincial governments.

KIRKCALDY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Roebuck of Margrath were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roebuck on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Selland are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the birth of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray motored up from Lethbridge on Sunday spending the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ames Agnew.

Mr. Harry and Miss Gertrude Roebuck motored to High River on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. George Todd had as their guests on Sunday friends from Okotoks.

An enjoyable evening was spent on March 17 at the Kirkcaldy community hall. The evening was conducted by the W. I. who had as their guests their husbands and the young peoples club. The evening began by a sumptuous repast which was heartily enjoyed by all. While still seated at the tables the gentlemen were given some beans. Mr. Colwell acted as auctioneer and auctioned off the small parcels provided for the occasion. The parcels were paid for by these beans. The parcels contained some silly inexpensive articles which caused much mirth. After the auctioning a bean fight ensued. It surely could be said, "Beans to the right of us, Beans to the left of us, Beans! Beans!! Beans!!!"

Finally quiet and order was restored and a short programme followed. The numbers were: community singing led by Mrs. Mallory; recitation by Everett Todd; duets by Mrs. Mallory and Miss G. D. Roebuck; contest "Nuts to Crack," by Mrs. Boose; song by Donald Mallory Elva Mallory, Alida Keegstra and Annie Keegstra; song by Mrs. Mrs. Mallory.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games and jokes. Mr. Seaman then thanked the W. I. for the enjoyable evening. Mr. Harry Peters spoke on behalf of the Young Peoples Club thanking the ladies for their kind entertainment. The evening proved a very successful and enjoyable one to all present.

Mrs. Chapman of Calgary was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Middleton over the week end.

EASTWAY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Lent were visitors to High River during the horse sale week.

On St. Valentine's Day, members of the Eastway W. I. entertained their husbands to supper and a social evening. Mrs. Jennejohn kindly offering her home for the occasion, her hospitality being much appreciated by all who were present. A very enjoyable evening was spent in music, games and cards. We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Jennejohn is recovering from her recent illness.

Congratulations to the district's newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bell whose marriage took place at the Pro Cathedral, Calgary on March 16, Dean Robinson being the officiating minister. The good wishes of the community are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bell.

Mrs. Claud Brodrick attended the W. I. Conference at Lethbridge as the Eastway representative.

Meeting of the W. I. have been held during the past month at the home of Mrs. R. P. Munsey's, Mrs. J. R. Goldthorpe and Mrs. S. Cockwell's, all of which have been fairly well attended.

RED CROSS NEWS

A Chrysler car must be hard to steer with one hand, at least we noticed one in the ditch the other night with four young people in it. I wonder how it got there.

Several of the young folk attended the dance in town last Friday night and report having a fine time.

A card party of 500 at Red Cross school on April 1st starting at 8 p.m. and an hour or two of dancing afterwards. Prizes given for the highest score. You are all invited to come.

Geo. Eamor had the misfortune to turn his truck over with a load of wheat on, and lucky no harm was done.

ENSIGN NEWS

A large crowd was present at a meeting of the Ensign Literary Society held in the school house Tuesday evening. The program committee was Mrs. W. Archambault, E. Harris and G. Marshall.

Church is held in Ensign every Sunday at 3.30, Rev. Mr. Farquhar minister; Sunday school at 2.30.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Parker was the setting for a very delightful party Thursday evening. Prizes in 500 were won by Mrs. J. N. Dwigans first for ladies; Lackie Brims first for men and Mrs. G. W. Parker and S. Ross for consolation. A delicious lunch was served at midnight. Each of the 25 guests had a very enjoyable evening.

Several young guests met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Elston, Friday afternoon, the occasion being Mike's birthday. Many games were played and at 6 p.m. a very dainty supper was served.

The March meeting of the Brant Junior U.F.A. was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Parker on Saturday evening the 21st. The meeting was opened by singing O Canada. Twenty members were present. It was decided to put on a lecture and dance in the Brant hall on April 10. When the business part of the evening was over a few dances were enjoyed. A very good lunch was served at 11.30. The meeting was closed by singing the National Anthem. The next meeting is to be held at the Peace school on April 4.

How is it that on city streets men will hit you up for a shilling, and women never? Well, hardly ever.

RETORT OF VETERAN

Provincial and Dominion parliamentarians who find it difficult to express their ideas strongly enough without coming under Mr. Speaker's censure might be interested in observing that there are other questions of racial origin, which will go back farther in time to the family history, but the first question is "What is your nationality?"

A Canadian is defined as follows: "A person who was born in Canada by Canadian parents; was born within the British Empire and acquired Canadian domicile through five years of residence in Canada; or has taken out naturalization papers after having been five years in the Dominion." Canadian nationality however outside of Canada is considered British. Internationally we are classed as British subjects of Canadian nationality. When a foreigner becomes naturalized in Canada he becomes a British citizen.

After all Agnes McPhail still suffers the limitations of the woman's viewpoint. When she asks for an allowance to promote peace, she asks for one one-hundredth of the war allotment. A man would never have dreamed of asking less than an even split.
